BEARS STILL RULE THE COTTON MARKET

Cotton opened steady to-day, unchanged to 7 points lower. Sentiment appeared to be decidedly against the market again, cables being poor, while the spot article in the South was said to be softening and long stuff still on tap. There was a pause at the start long enough to permit one or two o the large bear operators to buy in few shorts, and this accounted for the relative stoadiness of prices on the call. Immediately following there was run of selling orders that broke the price about 5 points on active months. The opening prices were: December 6.25 bld: January, 6.41 to 6.42; February, Wheat sagged in the market to-day, 6.70 to 6.73; March, 6.62 to 6.63; April, 6.70 to 6.71; May, 6.78 to 6.73; June, 6.88 but appeared to have support from the to 6.89; July, 6.91 to 6.92; August, 6.95 to 6.96; September, 6.95 bid; October, 7.05 Corn was also weak and very dull.
